Awarded Decision Over Tommy Ryan in Chicago.

RYAN HAS A MIXUP WITH REF-EREE HOGAN.

Declares Result Robbery and Punches Malachy's Face—Decision Will Stand Despite Agreement-Champion Jeffries' Brother Makes De- sounded but in Father's Presence and Wins

Tattersall's Chicago, May 29.-Kid McCoy was given the decision over Syracuse Tommy Ryan tonight at the end of one of the prettiest six-round fights ever seen here. But over the decision and what the referee, Malachy Hogan, claims was a misapprehension, a freefor-all fight resulted, and but for the presence of a large force of police, who hustled the men out of the ring and cleared the hall in a hurry, it is prob- round able that the McCoy-Ryan fight would Hogan said nothing, but climbed through the ropes.

Ryan Lands On Hogan.

"You're a robber!" shouted Ryan. Hogan turned around and just as he did so Ryan swung his left on Hogan's face. Quick as a flash Hogan returned the compliment with a blow on Tommy's nose. But before they could go further the police were between them.

The Tattersall's management admit-tel after the fight that the draw agreement was correct, but said Hogan's decision would stand.

Kid Keeps Away and Jabs.

So far as the fight is concerned, Mc-Coy, in the opinion of a large majority, had a long shade the better of it. Ryan carried the fight to his man continually but the elusive Kid was generally out of the way, and his lightning jabs had Tommy bleeding slightly early in the Ryan shook the Kid up badly, how

McCoy Is Bettors' Favorite,

Betting on the fight was not heavy. McCoy was a hot favorite at 2 to 1, with but little Ryan money in sight, even at these figures. There was, however, con-siderable money bet at the ringside that Syracuse Tommy would stay the

It was 10:30 p. m. before McCoy, attended by Billy Stift, Harry Harris, Homer Selby and Philadelphia Jack O'Brien as seconds, climbed through the ropes and took the northwest corner of the ring. The gloves were quickly donned and Referee Malachy Hogan called the men to the center of the ring for final instructions. It was apparent as the men stood listening to Hogan that both were in the finest possible condition.

Contest By Rounds.

Round 1.—Both sparred cautiously for a moment when the Kid swung to Rvan's wind, Ryan countering to face. McCoy put a straight left to the nose and a short swing to the nose without a return. A fierce rally ensued. Both fell to the floor, Both were up smilling. McCoy immediately dash, d his life three times to Tommy's nose. Ryan rushing, landed a hard right on ribs, but was countered heavily on cheek. Tommy came in with his head on ribs, but was countered heavily on cheek. Tommy came in with his head down, swinging his right, but was met with a right uppercut in the chest. The n'xt attempt was more successful, his right reaching McCoy's ear with force, but an instant later McCoy dashed his left to Ryan's mouth.

Round 2.—The men came to a clinch instantly with no damage. Ryan, with his head down, rushed, but received a right uppercut on the chest again. McCoy took a turn at rushing and swung his right. Ryan rushed immediately but missed and fell to the floor. Ryan rushed, but each time received McCoy's left straight in the face. Ryan rushed and hooked his left to the ear, but the clever Kid stopped it with his shoulder. Ryan tried it again, the blow glancing along McCoy's face. McCoy then dashed in a hard left straight in Tommy's eye, Ryan bringing his left lightly to the mouth. Both were bleeding slightly in the mouth as they went to their corners.

Kid Lands a Dazer.

Round 3.—Ryan rushed but did no damage. Sparring cautiously for a few seconds, Ryan again rushed and put a hard left to the ribs, receiving a hard right straight in the eye. Getting McCov in a neutral corner, Ryan tried to left hook, but the Kid was well inside. Pushing McCoy in his corner, Ryan swung both right and left, but McCoy's ever ready left found a lodging place in Tommy's stemach. Tommy missed a right. An instant later McCoy swung a terrific left to Bight's face and dazed him. Ryan rushed him, however, but received a hard right in the face. The bell rang in the middle of a fierce mix-up in the center of the ring.

McCoy's Cieverness Tells.

Round 5.—Ryan blocked a left for the face. Ryan rushed but the Kid cleverly evaded him. Again Tommy rushed and swung h.s right hard on the Kid's heart, the kid countering with a left on the ear. Twice more Tommy rushed, the Kid easily evading him. A flerce mix-up tollowed in which Tommy's nose was sollt by a countering with a left on the ear. ily evading him. A herce mix-up followed in which Tommy's nose was split by a back-hand left from McCoy. Tommy swung right to ribs, receiving two left hooks on cheek. McCoy cleverly ducked a straight left. McCoy put a hard left to Tommy's nose. Then a mix-up followed in McCoy's corner, but kyan was unable to land effectively. The men rushed along one side of the ring and were landing right and left when the beil sounded.

Hot Mixup at the End.

Round 6.—Both sparred for an instant. Ryan tried a lett nook, but McCoy was inside with his left on Tommy's sore nose. In a mix-up Tommy landed twice, receiving a hard right on the ear. Tommy again rushed and landed a terrific right on the Kid, the Kid sliding to the floor. He rose instantly, apparently unharmed Ryan rushed the kid around the ring, and finally, getting McCoy to his own corner, hooked a right to the Kid's ear, but received a terrific left which straightened him up. Ryan kept on rushing, ened him up. Ryan kept on rushing, swinging left and right, but not landing once in four times, the Kid blocking cleverly. Ryan put a hard right to the Kid's jaw and left to the ear. McCoy was given the decision at the end of the round.

Debut of Jack Jeffries.

Jack Jeffries of Los Angeles, brother of the heavy-weight champion, made his debut in the ring for a six-round go with Jack Bauscholt of Chicago, and the sports watched his work with much interest. Jeffries, who weighed at least fifteen pounds more than his opponent, showed some nervousness at first, but in the third round settled to his work, and in the fourth, after staggering his man with right and left to jaw, hooked a right to the point which settled things. Jeffries showed good foot work and the general opinion was that he would do.

Not the least interested spectator of this bout was Jeffries' father, the Rev. Jeffries, who saw a fight for the first time. What his opinion was on the matter he refused to say, however.

(Special Correspondence.) Ogden, May 29.—Pearl Barnes (Casey) arrived today to play with the Ogden nine. There will be two games between the Ogdens and the Short Lines, the first being called at 10:30 and the second at 3. The line-up for Ogden will include Casey at second base. Hansford and Gimlin will be the pitchers for Ogden. Taylor will pitch for the Shorts. Geirhardt left Denver this morning and will be here today. Extra cars will be on hand to handle the crowds to the driving park and Glenwood.

Shorts Go to Ogden.

The Short Line team, which has not had the best luck in the world this season, goes to Ogden today to tackle Fred Whipple's favorites and they are going with the determination of scalping the men in the Junction City. They showed that they could do it in the game here last Saturday and Manager Clippenger says they are going to do it again. Two games will be played in Ogden as in this city.

At a Signal From a Friend Haworth

Farmington, May 29.-Nathan F. Haworth made a most desperate ascampt prompt action of Detective E. A. Franks, Deputy Sheriffs Armond Rose and Joseph Willey and half a dozen citizens the prisoner would have reached the open air. The circumstances surrounding the attempted escape seem to indicate that an organized movement had been made by Haworth's friends to aid him in eluding the officers, had he once reached the ground floor of the court house. It is positively known that a signal was made to Haworth by Erastus R. Christopherson of Ogden, and at the moment the signal was given the prisoner bolt-ed for the door. Christopherson gave the signal at a time when no one was in the corridors on either floor or on the stairs, except one man, and he was a witness for Haworth.

Christopherson is in custody. Judge Rolapp fixed his bonds at $10,000 and ordered him to appear in court on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

Signal From Christopherson.

It was while Court Reporter Hamer was reading his stenographic notes of the examination of Juror Heber C. Gailey, which occurred yesterday, and while all who were in the court room were intently listen, that Mr. Christopherson and a companion of the court room were intently listen as a companion of the court room were also consider the court room were as a companion of the court room were also consider the court room were also consider the court room were as a companion of the court room were a companion of the court room were also consider the court room were a companion of the court room were a considered as a companion of the court room were also considered as a co topherson and a companion named Thomas Hull, both of whom are Ogden men and witnesses for the defense, walked up the stairs to the court room. Hull stood at the door and Christopherson entered. As he did so he removed his hat and nodded to Haworth, who returned the salutation. No sooner had Christopherson taken his seat than Haworth sprang from his chair, and in a crouching position darted through the open door. In making the sharp turn necessary to reach the stairs he slipped, and this gave time for Detective Franks, who was sitting ten feet from the entrance, to reach him and grab his coat as he fled headlong down the stairs, with Deputy Sheriff Rose on his heels. As the three men reached the middle landing Mr. Rose threw his Prosecutor Van Cott and Mathews' arms around Haworth's neck and Mr. counsel were present in the court room erting all his strength threw his man, but fell under the burly form of Haworth. By this time two other deputy jury was ready to report. sheriffs had seized Haworth and after Mathews seems to have a short but determined struggle the desperate fellow was placed in irons and led back into the court room. Reavis down from Ogden, and this evening at 7 o'clock he was arraigned before, City Justice E. S. Richards of Farmington on the charge of murder-ing Thomas Sandal at Layton on March 28, 1899. County Attorney Streeper appeared for the state and D. O. Willey, jr., of Salt Lake, represented the de-fendant, who, after hearing the complaint, entered a plea of not guilty. The preliminary examination was set for Tuesday, June 5, at 11 o'clock. Attorney Willey made a motion for a change of venue, supplemented by an affidavit signed by the defendant, setting forth that Justice Richards held N. S. Haworth on a similar charge, and hence would be biased in the Reavis investigation. The state made no exposition tigation. The state made no opposition, and the venue was changed to J. W. Gaily's court in Kaysville.

Ogden, May 29.—Great excitement was caused in Ogden on receipt of the news of the attempted rescue of Nick Haworth. The affair created all the more interest from the fact that several Ogden men were suspected of complicity in the attempt to escape. Ras Christopherson was brought to Ogden on the 7:40 train by Ex-Sheriff Belnap, who was deputized by Judge Rolapp for that purpose. Mr. Belnap happened to be on hand, since he was subpoenaed as a witness. Christopherson's bail was reduced by Judge Rolapp from $10,000 to $5,000. He furnished security, with James Harrop and Charles J. Lindquist as sureties, and was released.

ing the dust has been proven incorrect, as a large quantity has been found where the rock men had laid it preparatory to being used in the blasts. It will be some time before No. 4 will start, as the damage to the timbers was very great.

There are a number of men here waiting a chance to be put on, and as fast as the entries are repaired and cleaned miners will be given rooms, so that the shipment of coal will be in-creased daily. It will, however, be nearly a month before the usual output will be mined. Extra precautions have been adopted and a watch will be kept as to where the miners place their shots and as to how large a cartridge is used, thus insuring against firing the dust.

All the tools and powder in the mine belonging to the dead miners are being tagged and stowed away preparatory to

Then Brigham of the house of Perkins, Donnette and Jennie of the house of Smith, Mae and John of the house of Taylor, Ida of the house of Savage and Carl of the house of Badger put in an emphatic rejoinder, declaring that their plans should not miscarry.

The conversation was somewhat prolonged, but before separating an agreement was entered into to the effect that the matter should be referred to the college board and its aid invoked. Meantime the two offending gentlemen sent in their resignations, asking to withdraw from the programme. The withdrawal of Mr. Nelson was couched in conservative terms, while that of Mr. Clark contained English that could not be mistaken.

Monday night comes peaceful and serene. The college board, in the majesty of its power, sits as a court. Both contending parties appear, and with becoming composure the case is presented. Professor Paul withdraws from the programme and the name of Professor Nelson is also withdrawn, and with these eliminations the scheme as originally planned passes.

The banquet, therefore, will take place disposing of the same.

Every family known to the committee has been looked after. There are families that have moved away and have tried to become self-supporting, but have been compelled to draw on the little means they had saved, hoping to buy a cow or a few chickens or per-haps a pig, but as they were out of sight they were out of mind.

O. G. Kimball, one of the state relief board, has secured the contract to fur-nish the families with beef, but owing to the great dissatisfaction of the families who are being assisted, the local relief board has now allowed them to get such meat as they want, at any place they wish to purchase it, with the understanding that the meat bills The flowers are equally divided into will be deducted from their cash distri-

There are who suffer with pain in the small of back. Pain in the back is one of the first indications of Kidney Disease. A careful study of the chart will enable you to know for yourself if your kidneys are affected. Do you have dull or throbbing pains in the head (Fig. 1), puffiness under the eyes or swollen lids (Fig. 2), a pale or sallow complexion (Fig. 3), fluttering or paipitation of heart (Fig. 4) impaired dis-gestion (Fig. 5), pain in small of back (Fig. 6), weakness of limbs (Fig. 7)? Again, we have loss of appetite, excessive thirst, swollen feet, cold extremities.

All the above symptoms indicate serious kidney disease. Scientific medical men all marvel at the wonderful success of Hudyan 'n the treatment of kidney lesions.
